Meet one of Exprodesk's Empowered Women Exporters: Ms. Sharina Gumbs.

Sharina Gumbs is founder of Soul2Soul - Mindful Art, Transformational and Creative Coaching for Teams, Management & Professionals.

From 2010-2019 Sharina has exhibited her abstract artwork in various European countries, Aruba and USA. In 2020 Sharina won a Dutch culture prize (De Gouden C) for her project 'Re-fill your cup with authenticity.'

At the age of 7 Sharina emigrated to the Netherlands with her mother and 4 siblings. Growing up with an absent father and a strong independent single mother of five, has in many ways influenced her development and character.

As a child Sharina was very introvert and in drawing people, she found a way to express herself and give meaning to the world around her. Her interest in the human character and identity-development led to a study in social work (1993-1998) and later an education in behavioral science/ orthopedagogics (2007-2012).

In 2009 -while simultaneously working as a family guardian, studying Orthopedagogics and raising her 2 children as a single mother- Sharina decided to also pursue a part-time education in art (2009-2012) at 'De Nieuwe Akademie'. In 2014 Sharina moved back to her island of birth (Aruba) to pursue her dream of becoming a professional artist and somehow combining this with her background as a social worker.

Sharina Gumbs is a visual abstract artist and makes colorful and dynamic paintings that reflect authentic identity. From 2010 to date Sharina has exhibited her art in Europe and USA
